

TERRANCE L. JAMES,

Plaintiff,

v.

OFFICER RAY,

Defendant.

Plaintiff has now filed a Motion to Reconsider asserting that he had in fact fully exhausted his claim. As an initial matter, the Court notes that despite the fact that his information is dated January 18, 2005, Plaintiff did not send this exhaustion information with the exhaustion information he sent to the Court on March 16, 2005. However, even if Plaintiff had sent such information to the Court, it would not have altered this Court's conclusion that Plaintiff failed to fully exhaust his administrative remedies prior to filing his Complaint in federal court. The information sent to the Court in support of his Motion to Reconsider does not support a finding that the grievance filed by Plaintiff regarding the matters that form the basis of his Complaint had completed all three steps of the grievance process prior to Plaintiff's filing of his Complaint in federal court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT Plaintiff's Motion to Reconsider is DENIED.
